

The Poet's Corner.

SONG OF A YANKEE MUDDILL

Heard a heavy sigh, as I left her still there;
 I said — "Farewell mother, I shall event see
you!"
 But we may meet again, though I may be shot
down.
 Yes, think I will meet again, where honest people go.
 In that Freedom above, where we can swarm
 Where heaven cannot enter, oh Madalla

Ladies' Department.

Thrilling Story of a Naturalist
MUNCHHAUSEN OUTDONE.
We compile the amazing incident of

On coming up to the spot, both tiger huffies were found to be dead. On to have been caused by the sting of a

net. On tearing down his stockings discovered several leeches secured

the had blown him during his ride through the water on the DeCade's back. The

When he awoke, he found himself lying on a bed of straw. He was very weak and his eyes were very sore. He was very thirsty and his mouth was very dry. He was very hungry and his stomach was very empty. He was very cold and his body was very numb. He was very alone and his heart was very sad. He was very tired and his head was very heavy. He was very scared and his heart was very fast. He was very angry and his face was very red. He was very happy and his heart was very light. He was very sad and his heart was very heavy. He was very tired and his head was very heavy. He was very scared and his heart was very fast. He was very angry and his face was very red. He was very happy and his heart was very light. He was very sad and his heart was very heavy.

...the ...
...the ...
...the ...
...the ...

let him sit out," thought the poor girl, "if he comes to my bed again;" and by he could feel the cold perspiration play down his face. Fortunately, however, he was ever so much cooler than he seemed to be at the time, making his reap-

MAKE THE WOMAN WORK. DANCER
has a right to say he can do for the benefit of mankind. By doing proper duty in the proper place, a may make the world his debtor.

From our Lady Correspondent

LETTER FROM "SALLY S."
Knox, Dec. 18, 1891. Mass. Vol. 2

Would you not, friend "Mollie," better let you to advise all the young people to do all they can while they are young, if they might it or not themselves of this they have a strong tendency to do so, and shall have a good chance to do so.

I again add, for those that wish the press do so. I have said let the rights with them. I don't believe they have any notion whatever of "realism." I don't consider it a very becoming dress, for instance, to receive mighty bark before the tramping

the spreading sear, before the effort looses strength, struggle
achievement, pain before pleasure, before the gospel. The ease and moment of his boyhood is no aid to fearing and power. His baptism and possibly ends at the baptism

Domestic Econo

HOW TO MAKE BREAD.
—
CHALLENOR, FR.

But, I think it tastes quite as it is much preferred by some persons.
Sometimes I use Baker's yeast
other times, "Worcester's world-dry hop yeast." In hot weather of a cake of this yeast is enough
and in cold weather half a cake

Medical.

WHITE PINE COMP

[illegible]

MEDICAL RE

ND.

the most difficult and active group known to the system. It was also selected by the people who were in charge of the system, and it was the only group that was not selected by the people who were in charge of the system. It was the only group that was not selected by the people who were in charge of the system.

Medic

.....

Redding's Russian
FORTY YEARS' EX-
 The only established
REDDING'S RUSSIAN
 over all other Redding's

Medi

AROMATIC

Commonwealth of

[illegible]